

The Inaugurations of the AYP Executive Committees of the Universities

Various Universities in Hong Kong have joined HKAYP. Their Inaugurations for 2008-2009 have been successfully held in April 2008 respectively. They were:

University	Date
The Chinese University of Hong Kong	2 April 2008
The Hong Kong Baptist University	9 April 2008
The Hong Kong Institute of Education	14 April 2008
The Lingnan University	16 April 2008
The Hong Kong Polytechnic University	24 April 2008
The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology	25 April 2008

Mr. Lai Pui Wing, CEO of the Hong Kong Award for Young People

During the Inaugurations, all former User Unit Leaders and Presidents shared with the guests their experiences and feelings. Through participating AYP, they not only gained valuable experiences, but also enriched their university lives. Although they felt sad when they met difficulties in running AYP, they also tried their best to overcome them and took them as challenges. Besides, Presidents of University AYP Executive Committees expressed gratitude towards their retiring Executive Committee Members for their great support and efforts paid.

To share the joy of joining AYP and to witness the precious moments, Mr. Lai Pui Wing, the Chief Executive Officer of the Hong Kong Award for Young People, were invited to attend as the Guest of Honor and delivered speech of congratulation. Moreover, AYP Executive Committees from other universities and co-operating organizations also attended to show their support. Inaugurations for 2008-2009 University AYP User Units were completed with joy and happiness.

Re: Hong Kong University and HKU School of Professional and Continuing Education also joined AYP as User Units. Although they have not arranged their Inaugurations, they are very active in promoting and implementing the Award Scheme in their campus.
