

“Leave No Trace” Workshop

The “Leave No Trace” workshop organized by Expeditions Instructors Central Registration Unit was successfully held on 28th April 2007, Saturday at The Duke of Edinburgh Training Camp. We were honored to have Mr. Leung Wai Lun, the Master Diploma of Leave No Trace Outdoor Skills & Ethics Master Training by LNT Inc., USA to be our guest speaker. The workshop attracted nearly 50 expeditions instructors.

Staff was explaining how to plan ahead and prepare before journey

2) Dispose of Waste Properly - do not leave waste in any situation. 3) Respect Wildlife - do not feed any wild animals. 4) Leave What You Find - do not leave any symbols/marks on trees during journey. 5) Be Considerate of Other Visitors - be sure to travel and camp on durable surfaces.

Staff was introducing how to use and dispose natural gas and chemical.

Mr. Leung Wai Lun, the Master Diploma of Leave No Trace Outdoor Skills & Ethics Master Training by LNT Inc., USA

Five topics were covered in the workshops. Participants took turns to join the five workstations. The five topics included, 1) Plan Ahead and Prepare - reduce waste by getting well prepare before journey.

Staff was demonstrating how to dispose of waste properly

The workshop successfully provided participants information on how to minimize damage to the nature environment, conserve the countryside and achieve a sustainable use of nature environment.